Re: Henry Marx-Apology

I want to clarify and unequivocally state that the lawsuit that I recently filed against my former partner and manager, wherein I alleged amongst other causes of action: Fraud, Dishonesty and Conversion on the part of Henry Marx was totally without merit.

The lawsuit has been settled, and I can confirm that I have no claims whatsoever against Henry Marx.

I sincerely apologize for any harm or professional embarrassment my lawsuit has caused or may in the future cause Henry Marx both professionally and personally.

Respectfully,

Bobby Caldwell
